WHISPERINGS FROM ANGELINE.

(Special to The Hustler.)

Angeline, April 19.—We are sorry to note that Mrs. Charles Jeffress has had to undergo a very serious operation, but we are glad to state that it was very successful one and that it is hoped she will soon be at home at Jeffress Heights.

Mrs. Rachel Cathey and Mrs. J. H. Cathey spent the latter part of last week visiting in Angeline.

Mrs. Amanda Frances of Flat Rock is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nan Johnson.

Mr. J. O. Johnson and family of Perse Shoe spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. T. V. Carland.

Mrs. Hamilton Osborne has returned to her home in Camden, S. C., after a very pleasant stay with her parents. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Osborne, a son, April 12.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carland, a daughter, April 16.

The lonesome call of the whippoorwill in the evenings, reminds the farmers that planting time is at hand. Are you ready?

NEW HOME IN DANA.

H. K. Pace is nearing the completion of a handsome residence in Dana. The home is located on what was once known as the Merchant place but several years ago purchased by Mr. Pace. There is 10 rooms in all with a broad piazza on three sides of the house.

SOCIETY

Literary Society Entertain.

The High school literary society gave a social Thursday evening in the school auditorium. Various drawing-room games made the jolly hours roll merrily on. Songs were sung by a quartette composed of Messrs. Raymond Glenn, Horace Gray, Frank Bly and Gaither Briggs, accompanied by Miss Gussie Dotson. Misses Gladys Glenn and Helen Johnson sang a duo and two selections were rendered by Miss Helen Johnson accompanied by Miss Marguerite Briggs. Delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were: Misses Youmans and Dotson of the faculty, Misses Briggs and Hinds of the music and expression departments, Misses Ollie and Pauline Orr, Dolly and Dorothy Posey, Gladys Waldrop, Carrie Davis, Anne Crinkley, Alice Pace, Nell Carson, Mabel Gilreath, Harriette Dittmer, Gladys Glenn, Helen Johnson, Jean Drake, Muriel Fuller, Catharine Bacon, Kate Dotson, Willie Lou Jordan, Elizabeth Elsom, and Messrs. George Hampton, Clifton Lott, Ray Ellison, Earl Hallman, John Drake, Reginald Morris, Alexander Rubenstein, Everett Hinds, Wm. Penny, Lee Allen, Frank and Lawrence Bly, Gaither Briggs, Albert Dixon, Raymond Glenn, Horace Gray, Duncan Crinkley, Louis Durham, Paul English, Pearson Greer, Cecil Stepp, Zollar Reese, and Emmett Lott.

The excellence of the Music department of Fassifern school was exhibited to the community when the pupils of Miss Chellian Pixley, directress of music and of Miss Isabel Pixley, head of the voice department rendered Gounod's Gallia Sunday afternoon at St. James' church. The efficiency of their instruction was evidenced by the concord of the chorus, and the accuracy of time and expression.

Miss Chellian Pixley played the accompaniment and, though she had an organ decidedly inferior to the necessities of the occasion manipulated both stops and keys in a masterly way. The lovely voice of Miss Isabel Pixley in a beautiful solo.

Hendersonville music lovers are anticipating much pleasure in hearing an opera to be given by the Fassifern students during commencement week.

The girls' basket ball teams of the Asheville and Hendersonville high schools engaged in an interesting game on the Hendersonville court Saturday afternoon. The result was a victory for Asheville with a score of 11 to 1. The game was unique in that it was the first time in history that a girl's basket ball team of Hendersonville ever took part in a match game.

The home team has been handicapped throughout the whole year by the lack of a court to practice on, and the Asheville team only recently returned from a series of games in Raleigh, Durham, and Greensboro. The Hendersonville coach had anticipated a victory for Asheville with a score of 30 or 40 to 0 so was thoroughly gratified when their team held the score so low as they did.

The team was outmatched by the visitors in self-confidence, though the playing of Miss Anne Crinkley was inspiring through the game.

The spectators, generally, lent encouragement to the players.

The following was the lineup:
Hendersonville.
Noland, h. . . . . Gilreath, h
Weaver, h. . . . . Caldwell, h
Neely, c. . . . . Smith, c
Tennant, c. . . . . Crinkley, c
Blomberg, g. . . . . Dittmer, g
Johnston, g. . . . . Waldrop, g

Miss Christina Justus presided at high school chapel exercises Friday morning. Devotional services were conducted by Rev. George F. Wright, who exhorted his auditors to do something new and something better without being erratic. Dr. A. C. Tebeau accompanied by Mrs. Wheelwright, sang a solo and was encored. Selections were read by Miss Pauline Orr and Zollar Reese. Mr. William Penny rendered a piano solo, and the marches and hymn accompaniments were played by Miss Kate Dotson. Among the visitors were Mrs. Burnham and Miss Agnew.

Birthday Party.

The fifth birthday of Master Henry Mitchell King, Jr., was celebrated Monday afternoon by a party to his young friends at the home of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Davis on Washington street. The hall and parlor were very attractive with Easter decorations. Rabbits, eggs, and chickens were perched in every available place. In the yard were hidden dyed eggs for which the guests joined in a search. Besides the eggs they found, the guests each received a rabbit and a chicken. Not the least enjoyable part of the afternoon was when the guests were invited to the dining room to partake of the delicious refreshments in the midst of which, in the center of the table was a large birthday cake on which were burning five candles.

Those present were: Misses Mary Valentine, Harriet Hobbs, Nita Cawthon, Frances Johnson, Annie Laurie Carson, and Masters Billie Patterson Carter and William Freeze, John Houston, Woodley Cawthon, and John Mason, Jr.

The Methodist defeated the Baptists by a score of 30 to 12 in a game of basket ball Monday afternoon on the graded school court. Morris, Pope, and Hunter shot goals for the victors, and Lott, Ellison, and Bangs for the vanquished.

The following was the lineup:
Methodists.
Morris, c. f. . . . . Lott, f
Hodges, f. c. . . . . Ellison, f. c
Pope, f. . . . . Bangs, c. g

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Eaves, Mrs. W. O. Watkins motored over from Rutherfordton last Thursday.

D. T. Connor has a new Chalmers car.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chewning returned Thursday, coming in their car from Summerton.

Mr. and Mrs. Finnegan, Mrs. D. T. Connor, Mrs. Stony and Miss Minne Stony motored over to Asheville on Monday.

The many friends of Mrs. R. E. McDowell rejoice over her continued improvement and hope she will soon arrive at Wellville.

Interesting Lecture.

Mrs. C. Ransier, of Hendersonville, told an audience at the Methodist Protestant church, Sunday night, of her experience in Palestine, several years ago when she made a trip through the holy land with a large party of tourists. The lecture was interesting. Mrs. Ransier exhibited several different costumes of the countries she had visited.—Asheville Citizen.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church will hold their annual Easter sale of cake, candy and colored eggs at Hunter's Pharmacy, Friday, April 21st.

DR. ENNIS INJURED.

News has been received here of the painful accident which happened to Dr. Ennis the other day in St. Petersburg. In some way he slipped and wrenched his back while in the act of leaving a bath tub. The many friends here of the Doctor hope that the injury is not serious. He expressed himself in a letter that he thought that the accident would not delay his coming to Hendersonville on or about May 1.

Readers of the Hendersonville Hustler will miss the brilliant squibs of Rev. John Kershaw, Jr., who suddenly died recently. After preparing the copy for the week's paper he left the shop, went home and died from a hemorrhage. Mr. Kershaw was a gifted writer and a man who made himself agreeable with his acquaintances. Hendersonville has lost a splendid citizen and the Hustler a valuable asset.—Sylvan Valley News.

The Hendersonville Hustler has succeeded in the erection of two very modern hotels within the past two weeks. We wonder if they are hot-air proof?—Sylvan Valley News.

WHO SHALL IT BE?

A petition was presented to Senator T. B. Allen, during the 1913 Legislature asking him to support a bill for the increase of the salaries of Clerk of Court, $500; Registrar of Deeds, $200; Sheriff, $200.

He refused to support the bill and it did not pass.

The Clerk of Court receives $1,500 per year.

The Registrar of Deeds receives $1,600

The Sheriff is paid $1,000 per year.

This petition was signed by a number of Democrats including three candidates for the Democratic nomination for State Senate namely:

R. M. Oates, J. F. Justice, V. C. V. Shepherd

Are the Democrats in favor of taxing the people in this manner? Are there many Jobs in Henderson county that pay more than these?

If you believe in Increased Salaries, vote for one of these three. If you do not then stand by the man who defeated it in 1913.
